

As the summer fades into our memory we now look forward to a very busy diary. As well as a plethora of local events UKIP's 20th Anniversary Annual Conference is to be held in the Methodist Central Hall in Westminster, within sight of the home of British Democracy [!] the Palace of Westminster. This should be very well worth attending so the advice is to book now. To help you Bournemouth UKIP is running a round trip in a 49 seater coach on the Friday, the main day of keynote speeches, but as we write there are only 6 seats left. If interested, bearing in mind that Bournemouth and Ringwood are the only collection points, please contact David Hughes on 01202 552 494. To book for the conference please contact UKIP head office.

We have now found out which of our local members are potential MEP candidates. The six South West MEP candidates have been selected by the marks they achieved in the UKIP assessment process. They now face a new procedure to establish the order that they will be on the local shortlist, i.e. the order they would become actual MEPs in the elections next May under the proportional representation system used for these elections. The curious new system that UKIP has selected involves the members voting in early September for the 10 they most like from the 60 English candidates nationwide regardless of region. Presumably we in the SW will vote for our 6 candidates and then complete the 10 from others further afield who have expressed an interest in standing in our area.

You will shortly receive full voting details from Head Office so we give you a very brief flavour of our local candidates for your information:

Gawain Towler – Hails from Wimborne and is well known to many North Dorset members as he was our Prospective Parliamentary Candidate [PPC] before personal reasons caused him to stand down in favour of Jeremy Nieboer. Gawain has been in the important role of Press Officer for UKIP for several years. Fourth on the MEP SW list in 2010. Sadly widowed but now living with his partner and 3 children.

Cllr Dr Julia Reid - A member of UKIP since 1993, is assistant to the retiring current MEP Trevor Colman and is a town councillor for Calne North in Wiltshire and the Chairman of North Wiltshire & Chippenham Branch. Julia is also the PPC for Chippenham. Married with one son and two grandsons, she has a PhD in Pharmacology.

Tony McIntyre – A member of UKIP since January 2007. Chairman of UKIP South West, Devon and the Tiverton & Honiton Branch. PPC for Taunton Deane in the 2010 elections, having contested all levels of council seats for UKIP retired teacher Tony is married with one daughter, and has a BA in General Arts through the O.U. & a Cert. Ed. from Bede College, Durham. A keen sportsman and real ale enthusiast.

William Dartmouth – 10th Earl of Dartmouth – the one of our two SW MEPs who seeks re-election. Active in the EUP and in the South West and specialist on the European Arrest Warrant. Member of the Committee on International Trade. Married in 2009, William is Dame Barbara Cartland's grandson and step-brother to the late Diana, Princess of Wales, and has been a UKIP member since January 2007.

Keith Crawford – served in the Devonshire & Dorset regiment from the age of 15. On leaving the army he started a property development business and now has a mixed portfolio of some 60 properties. Joining UKIP some six and a half years ago Keith also has fought in local elections. He was a PPC for Exeter in 2010 winning an above average 3.7% of the vote.

Robert Lee Smith – Former Police and Crime Commissioner Candidate for Devon and Cornwall in 2012. A UKIP member since 1993, Robert has fought local elections starting in Shirley, Southampton in November of that year. A PPC for Falmouth/Camborne in 1997 and a candidate at different levels many times since. An early member of the CIB & AFL. A psychologist he is married with four children.

Videos introducing all six candidates should soon be available at www.ukip.tv . Some are already there to view along with some of the candidates from around the country. To start you off here are the direct links to Tony McIntyre's <http://www.ukip.tv/?p=4303> , William Dartmouth's <http://www.ukip.tv/?p=4291> & Julia Reid's <http://alturl.com/cnnj6> .

We have seen a preview of the excellent 'UKIP Dorset News' Newspaper. This publication revolutionises UKIP newspapers with a very fresh, new, professional look. Bournemouth member Martin Houlden has virtually single handed produced it and deserves a medal. 40,000 are being printed shortly. If you can help get them out in your neck of the woods please contact Martin via email on martin@houlden.co.uk . These need to be in Dorset residents' homes during September. In the spring of 2014 there will be a follow-up European Election edition.

Christchurch UKIP has also got a special leaflet to deliver. Specifically aimed at Christchurch town centre, some 26,000 of these also will be available for delivery in September. This is produced and funded by Alistair Somerville-Ford, a Ringwood businessman who recently joined the Christchurch Association and committee. The public in Dorset are extremely lucky to be at the receiving end of these two first rate publications! They will have no excuse for being unaware of the issues facing this country that originate in the EU.

We are pleased to present Jeremy Nieboer's latest offering for your consideration.

Jeremy Nieboer: SYRIA – THE ILLUSION OF AIR STRIKES

In the exchanges of opinion as to the Syrian catastrophe with both sides holding a strong moral position we must hold fast to the historic fundamentals of British foreign policy. If British interests are not served by doing so we should not embark on war with any other State unless there is no alternative. Moreover while force with air strikes seems attractive on entry the exit can result in lasting damage to our influence – Iraq and Suez instruct us.

British interests demanded that Hitler should have been ejected from the Rhineland in 1936 before full rearmament. British interests demanded our intervention in the Falklands in 1982 as being under British protection. Our historical liberation of Libya Italian rule and establishing of the monarchy that Gaddafi overthrew coupled with his directly hostile conduct to us provided some authority for our intervention. Stability of a more humane kind has resulted. Britain effectively created Iraq as a nation after the First World War under the Sykes-Picot agreement after we had ejected the Turks and we exercised direct influence through a "client" king. Saddam threatened our economic interests in Kuwait and in his own country.

We can also readily see that a case could be made out for intervention in Zimbabwe as its founder. But what are our interests in Syria? Moreover if we intervene can we be sure we can withdraw should it become clear that intervention has either failed or requires further and massive military action on the ground? These are the hard questions which must be answered.

We have no such interests in Syria as require our presence in arms. Nor is the impact of the civil war in Syria in the region such as clearly to require our intervention to assist our allies Israel, Turkey and Jordan. However the case made for intervention is a moral one. It is said that we cannot stand by and witness the inexorable descent of the innocents in Syria into a hell of unimaginable cruelties and massacres. But such is the world created by fanaticism and tyranny everywhere. We delude ourselves if we believe that military intervention will create a better world for those for whom we feel such sorrow.

So far from this being so there are good reasons to suppose that the vicious civil war between the Salafi Sunnism and revolutionary Shi'ism, as sustained by Iran, will, if Syria collapses, burst out and engulf the large regions of the Middle East. We know that al-Nusra/al Qaeda are deeply interested in this outcome.

There are indeed States whose interests would be served by intervention in Syria. Such are the grouping of States in the Arab League. Turkey has been directly attacked. France was the dominant foreign power in Syria prior to it becoming an independent nation. For us, however, the exercise of democratic restraint on executive military power may have been a greater service to the cause of human freedom than anything its use would have achieved.

The next round of consultations regarding the Navitus Bay Wind Farm is commencing shortly. Whether they have practical value is debatable but it is comforting that we can use the occasions to keep our views on the subject in their face, making it clear to them that the people of Dorset generally do not want this inefficient, heavily subsidised monstrosity in their patch of the Jurassic Coast. These are the details of the so-called consultations:

Thursday 12 Sept - 2-8pm - Captain's Club Hotel, Waterside Suite, Wick Ferry, Wick Lane, X'church BN23 1HU

Friday 13 Sept - 2-8pm - Lyminster Community Centre, Fuller/McLellan Hall, New Street, Lyminster SO41 9BQ

Saturday 14th Sept - 10am-4pm - Medina Leisure Centre, Sports Hall, Farilee Road, Newport, I. of W. PO30 2DX

Tuesday 17th Sept - 2-8pm - St Edwards Church Hall, Victoria Avenue, Swanage BH19 1AH

Wednesday 18th Sept - 2-8pm - The Lighthouse, Function Room 1, 21 Kingland Road, Poole BH15 1UG

Thursday 19th Sept - 2-8pm - West Moors Memorial Hall, 231 Station Road, West Moors, Ferndown BH22 0HZ

Friday 20th Sept - 2-8pm - New Milton Community Centre, Osborne Road, New Milton, BH25 6EA

Saturday 21st Sept - 10am-4pm - B I C, Bourne Lounge, Exeter Road, Bournemouth BH2 5BH.

More details from <http://www.challengenavitus.org.uk/public-consultation.html>

A new development on this contentious subject has been reported in the Independent. In an "exclusive" story, they maintain that that the "compliance committee" set up under Annex II of the Aarhus Convention has ruled that the UK Government, who ratified it in Feb 2005, has acted in breach of the Article 7 by denying the public decision-making powers over their approval and the "necessary information" over the benefits or adverse effects of wind farms. Plans for future wind farms in Britain could be in jeopardy as the ruling calls into question the legal validity of any further planning consent for all future wind-farm developments based on current policy, both onshore and offshore. The compliance committee has also recommended that the UK must in the future submit all plans and programmes similar in nature to the National Renewable Energy Action Plan (NREAP) to public participation, as required by Article 7. Note that the Navitus Bay Wind Farm is yet to gain planning permission.

What the media say:

- Iceland said that a recent election which brought eurosceptic parties to power had been interpreted by constitutional advisors as a signal to stop EU accession talks. The foreign ministry said it had received an opinion from its constitutional advisors that the government was not bound by a 2009 parliamentary vote to launch the membership talks. "After receiving this opinion the foreign minister has decided to consider dissolving the negotiation committee," the ministry said in a statement, quoted by the AFP news agency.
- MigrationWatch UK has warned that the votes of a million immigrants from the 54 Commonwealth states including - Australia, Canada, India, Pakistan and Nigeria could decide the outcome of the next General Election and the promised referendum on Britain's EU membership – even though they do not hold British passports. The Express reports that many are eligible to join the electoral roll on arrival in the UK provided they have UK addresses. The campaign group MigrationWatch UK has called for a change in the rules to remove voting rights from non-citizens.
